BNL SOFTBALL

With a roaring cheer from the grandstands of Field Number 2, this past week, the Brookhaven Derelicts took the field against the Cosmotron of the same league. When the opener was over the Derelicts still were on the field, two men more than they started the first two innings with, but with a score of only 7 runs against the long ball hitting Cosmotroners, who brought 23 men across the plate.

In other games in the Brookhaven league during the week the Gnats beat Health Physics 14 to 6 and the Potsareebies pummeled V.S.P.'s 10 to one. (What happened to the Shut out?)

Meanwhile, in the National League, as in years past, the mighty, gallant, courageous (but losing) Phoubars started out their League year with a brass-band parade and all the festivities generally related to the Phoubars, - took the field - and were set down by Biology 9 to 5. In another tight game in the National league, Metallurgy (a bunch of young'uns) really upset the Old Timers by trouncing them 22 to 9. The Dirty-Sox, in their bid to take and keep first place, plowed up the field with Grounds Maintenance 14 to 4.

GIRLS SOFTBALL

If the opener was an indication, we're in for a good season.

To say "everything" went smoothly would be rather misleading.

Obstacle No. 1: The new bases and how to attach them to the stakes in the ground.

Obstacle No. 2: This is always a problem. A fair and just way of deciding whether a runner is out or safe. The determining factor this year seems to be the debator keeping the straightest face the longest wins!

All things considered the two teams organized very smoothly and there were enough players to make up two "full" teams!

Team A, as yet unnamed, captained by Elaine Daniels, defeated the "Cookies", led by Edo Cook, 12-11.

Good to see so many of last year's regulars back. One sad note, however, is that Genie McConnell has forsaken us for skin diving.

The girls would like to thank George Sabine and Ground Maintenance for the new field. The only trouble is the girls got feeling quite professional and we had to caution them on sliding with Bermudas on, and stealing under such insurmountable odds but there was no stopping them. In fact, one of the girls had to be restrained from going around the bases twice; she had so much fun the first time.

We'll all be out again this Wednesday. Same field, same time. All newcomers will be welcomed.
