BNL SOFTBALL

After the second week of the season things are beginning to shape up in an almost predictable fashion. Lets take it by leagues. In the Brookhaven League we had one game rained out, The Cosmotron vs. Medical on Wednesday night. On Tuesday night in a very close one, Health Physics barely made it by taking it away from the Potsareebies 18 to 17. Jerry Weis, lobbing it in for HP helped his own win by snaring a liner in his beard, unsnarling it and assisting in a DP. And on Thursday night, the Derelicts, in a true comedy of errors lost to the Gnats by the ridiculous score of 31 to 7. However, it must be considered that this was their first string team. No! They won't accept a challenge by the Girls teams.

In the National League everybody is fighting for second place. On Monday night the Phoubars, aided by four HRs, Christoffersen, Cuccia, Dioguardo and Garret, took the Old Timers 8 to 2. On Tuesday night, the Thumpers really thumped. They beat the Dirty Sox 27 to 7. Due to threats of violence, this reporter has no other comment on this game. Lastly, on Thursday night, Grounds Maintenance won over Metallurgy 10 to 7.

THEATRE GROUP NOTES

Military logistics call for approximately 8 men "behind the lines" for every combat soldier. In the theatre, the ratio of "backstage" to "on stage" should be similar to the military ratio but this varies from play to play, with the willingness of theatre group members to volunteer for the hundred-and-one jobs incident to producing a play. The "backstage" crew for BLITHE SPIRIT makes up in quality what it lacks in numbers. They are as follows:

Director, Walter Hamilton; Production Manager, Joe Jach; Set Design, Keith Rowley; Set Construction, John Rush, Dutch Stoenner, Stan Seltzer, and Jim Eagan; Lighting, Ed Sayre and Ed Neilsen; Stage Manager, "Pas" Mukerjee; Make-up, Barbara Schwartz and Doris Weber; Costumes, Rita Straub and Adelaide Flatau; Props, Regina McConnell, Janet Bohl, and Jean Lauer; Program Booklets, Ginny Sayre; Publicity, John Gorr; Ticket Reservations, Bob Fuchs; Special Effects, Dutch Stoenner; On Book, Diane Eisler.

Diane Eisler is very adamant about actors playing fast and loose with the script. She deserves an accolade here and now for being alert and exacting.

Ticket reservations are coming in to Bob Fuchs in increasing numbers. Do it now - organize a theatre party from among your relatives, friends and neighbors. Reserve the seats now - you have until June 5 to pick up the tickets and pay for them. You get your tickets from the distributor who makes your reservations.

Many kindly disposed people who are not actual members of the theatre group are helping the cause along by taking seat reservations and assisting in other ways too. Come and laugh at BLITHE SPIRIT. You might like it.
