

Explore Brookhaven with Summer Sunday Open House Tours

Kristyn Noren

Chief Protocol Officer, Protocol Office, Stakeholder Relations

May 9, 2024

Purpose & History

- Provide opportunities for the public to get to know the Lab
- Strengthen connection with the community
- Increase awareness of the Lab's research
- Make science accessible, especially to students
- Historically, 1000+ people per day
- Held one Sunday a month throughout the Summer

Explore Brookhaven Lab

Travel to the frontiers of discovery at the U.S. Department of Energy's Brookhaven National Laboratory. Save the dates to meet scientists, visit world-class research facilities, enjoy science shows, and more at Brookhaven Lab's Summer Sunday Open House Tours.

June 30

Family Fun

at the Science Learning Center

July 21

Dazzling Discoveries

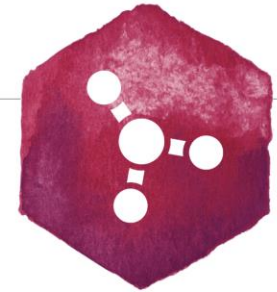

at the National Synchrotron Light Source II

Aug. 4

Innovation and the Environment

at the Center for Functional Nanomaterials,
National Weather Service

Sept. 15

Fascinating Physics

at the Superconducting Magnet and Tandem Van de Graaff facilities

June 30: Family Fun

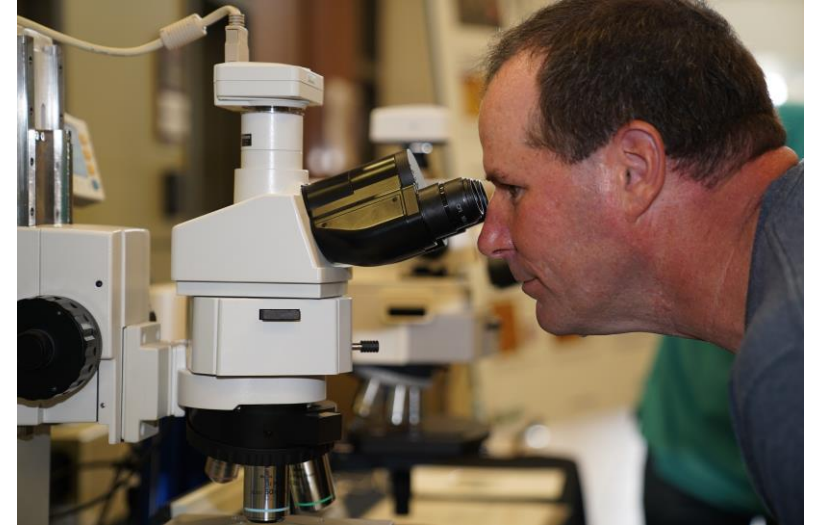

July 21: Dazzling Discoveries

August 4: Innovation & the Environment

Added Participation From:

- National Weather Service
- Environmental Protection Division
- Environment & Climate Sciences Department
- Interdisciplinary Science Department

September 30: Fascinating Physics

New featured tour of the Tandem van de Graaff!

Visit: bnl.gov/sundays

For up-to-date information including the full program with scheduled tours, talks and shows.