

Counseling

It is okay not to be okay. When life presents you with problems that you're having difficulty resolving on your own, take advantage of the counseling sessions offered by your program. Counseling helps you learn more about yourself and improve your mental health.

Common reasons to seek counseling

- To work on marriage issues
- To cope with a big life transition
- To develop improved parenting skills
- To manage mood swings
- To improve career prospects
- To gain a deeper understanding of yourself
- To process grief and trauma
- To become more assertive
- To challenge harmful thoughts

Struggling alone and doing nothing is never the answer. There's no need to feel anxious or guilty about seeking help. Counseling provides a convenient, confidential, safe, and non-judgmental environment to work on issues and learn new coping skills.

Key features

- No cost to you and your household members.
- Convenient, confidential and provided by a third party.
- You can benefit from up to 5 pre-paid counseling sessions per issue, per year.
