

Inside Publishing: A Workshop on the Publishing Landscape in Applied Physical Science

Sponsored by AIP Publishing

AIP Publishing is sponsoring a workshop at Brookhaven National Laboratory intended to bring students, post-docs, scientists, and researchers together to learn more about the publishing landscape. The workshop will aim to:

- Provide guidance on where to publish in order to resonate with your respective scientific community
- Give tips on how to add value to your published work and make it more visible to your target audience
- Give an overview of the overall publishing landscape including current trends in scholarly publishing
- Inform on career options for physical scientists

WHEN: October 22, 2014

TIME: 9:00am – 4:00pm

WHERE: BNL, Center for Functional Nanomaterials (Bldg. 735) Seminar Room

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN!
